

The New York Forest Owner – 2005 Volume 43, Numbers 1-6

Entomology

Peach Bark Beetle - Results of Research and News of Work in Progress, Douglas C. Allen, January/February, p. 16

Maple Webworm is Often Prevalent During Forest Tent Caterpillar Outbreaks, Douglas C. Allen, March/April, p. 16

Ecology: Ginseng Threatened by Bambi's Appetite, Erik Stokstad, May/June, p. 19

The Large Carpenter Bee, Douglas C. Allen, July/August, p. 16

Northeastern Extraordinaire, Shavonne Sargent, September/October, p. 8

An Outburst of Lecanium Scale - a Sticky Business, Douglas C. Allen, September/October, p. 16

Sirex noctilio - An introduced wood-boring wasp, Douglas C. Allen, November/December, p. 16

Forest Policy & Law

Commentary - New York's Forest Tax Laws, Scott K. Gray III, May/June, p. 18

Why 480-A Works And How Not to Fix It, John R. Sullivan, November/December, p. 12

Miscellaneous

Compensating Consulting Foresters, Jerry Michael, January/February, p. 8

Trends in New York Stumpage Prices, Jerry Brian and Duane Chapman, May/June, p. 8

Planning the Future Forest, Thom J. McEvoy, May/June, p. 12

To Know a Tree, Shavonne Sargent, May/June, p. 17

Cornell's "Other" Ag Experiment Station Works To Improve the State's and Region's Forestry Resource, Michael P. Voiland, September/October, p. 12

Know Your Trees - White Spruce, January/February, p. 22

Know Your Trees - Balsam Fir, March/April, p. 22

Know Your Trees - Eastern Hemlock, May/June, p. 22

Know Your Trees - American Larch, July/August, p. 22

Know Your Trees - Northeastern White Cedar, September/October, p. 22

Know Your Trees - Red Cedar, November/December, p. 22

Wild Things in Your Woodlands: Chestnut-sided warbler, Kristi Sullivan, May/June, p. 15

Wild Things in Your Woodlands: Eastern newt, Kristi Sullivan, July/August, p. 15

Wild Things in Your Woodlands: Eastern Screech-Owl, Kristi Sullivan, September/October, p. 10

Wild Things in Your Woodlands: Black Bear, Kristi Sullivan, November/December, p. 10

NYFOA News

NYFOA General Director Candidates - Election Form, January/February, p. 12

43rd Annual Spring Program - February 26, 2005, January/February, p. 13

DEC Proposes Changes in Cooperating Forester Program - NYFOA's Response, January/February, p. 19

NYFOA Awards, March/April, p. 14

NYFOA Merger Announcement, July/August, p. 11

New Executive Director for NYFOA, November/December, p. 9

Stewardship

Avoid Trespass During Hunting Season, Bob King, January/February, p. 20
Pineholm: 50 years of a Multi-value Tree Farm, Norm Richards, March/April, p. 8
No-Op to Co-Op, Barbara A. Tucker, March/April, p. 18
Special NYFOA Member Tour - Big Flats, May/June, p. 11
Chronology of a Forest Steward, Dan Palm, May/June, p. 20
The Palm Family - 2005 Outstanding Tree Farmers, July/August, p. 21
Someday...When You Can't Hear So Well, Jim Ochterski, November/December, p. 15
Forest Food: Mast, Jim Finley, November/December, p. 19

Woodlot Management

Ask A Professional: Crop Tree Management, January/February, p. 6
Ask A Professional: Manage a woodlot to provide optimal habitat for Wood Thrush and Cerulean Warbler, March/April, p. 6
Ask A Professional: Prepare a rural site for the planting of seedling trees, May/June, p. 6
Ask A Professional: Manage a woodlot to restore production to a sugarbush, July/August, p.
6
Ask A Professional: What to consider about girdling, September/October, p. 6
Ask A Professional: What ecological effect does hay-scented fern have on the forest,
November/December, p. 6
HOW TO: Manage a Woodlot for Firewood, January/February, p. 10
HOW TO: Protect Newly Planted Seedlings, March/April, p. 5
HOW TO: Implement Forest Farming Practices, May/June, p. 5
HOW TO: Manage Vole Damage, July/August, p. 5
HOW TO: Improve Hardwood Forests-One Seedling at a Time, September/October, p. 5
HOW TO: Protect Trees from Winter Damage, November/December, p. 5
Arranging a Timber Sale, Brian Bullard, January/February, p. 14
Acorn Planting, Ed and Wanda Piestrak, May/June, p. 16
Invaders!, Shavonne Sargent, July/August, p. 9
Pond Management, Rebecca Schneider, July/August, p. 12
Portable Skidder Bridges Made Easy, Steve Bick, July/August, p. 18
Fencing To Exclude Deer, Edward and Wanda Piestrak, September/October, p. 18
Keeping Your Chainsaw in Shape, Joe Smith, September/October, p. 20

The New York Forest Owner – 2004 Volume 42, Numbers 1-6

Entomology

Insects and the Decomposition of Woody Material, Douglas C. Allen, January/February, p.
16
Insect Growth and Development – strange but true!, Douglas C. Allen, March/April, p. 16
Sugar Maple Petiole Borer and a Stem Borer of Black Cherry, Douglas C. Allen, May/June,
p. 16
Forest Owners Must Adjust to Tent Caterpillar Defoliation , Douglas C. Allen, July/August,
p.16
Caterpillars of Some Common Giant Silkworms and Royal Moths, Douglas C. Allen,
September/October, p. 16
Sudden Oak Death: Not Just a West Coast Problem, Rebecca Nisley, November/December,
p. 6
The Startling Beech Blight Aphid, Douglas C. Allen, November/December, p. 16

Forest Policy & Law

Why New York's RPTL §480-a Does Not Encourage Forest Stewardship, David J. Colligan, March/April, p. 10

Further Thoughts Regarding 480-a, Michael Greason, May/June, p. 6

Commentary – New York's Forest Tax Law 480A, Henry Kernan, November/December, p. 14

Miscellaneous

Know Your Trees – Eastern White Pine, March/April, p. 20

Another Great Grass Roots Volunteer Program, Dick Fox, March/April, p. 21

Know Your Trees – Pitch Pine, May/June, p. 15

Top Ten Environmental Benefits of Forestry, May/June, p. 18

Commentary: The Catskills and the Nature Conservancy, Henry Kernan, May/June, p. 19

Two Heros of American Forestry, Thom McEvoy, July/August, p.13

Know Your Trees – Red Spruce, November/December, p. 22

NYFOA News

In Memory of John Krebs, January/February, p. 4

Tom Cutter: NYFOA Disbursement Administrator, January/February, p. 9

NYFOA General Director Candidates - Election Form, January/February, p. 12

42nd Annual Spring Program – February 28, 2004, January/February, p. 13

Forest Land Enhancement Program (FLEP), Tom Cutter, March/April, p. 14

NYFOA Awards, May/June, p. 12

Stewardship

Southern Finger Lakes Chapter Delivers a Solid Program, Gary Goff and Kelly Smallidge, January/February, p. 6

Biodiversity in Post Agricultural Forests, Greg McGee, March/April, p. 6

Becoming a Wildflower Fan, Rance Scott Harmon & Jim Finley, March/April, p. 8

Conservation versus Preservation, Bob Patterson, May/June, p. 10

We Are All Part of Nature, Diane Ackerman, May/June, p. 20

Boonville Business on the Right Track, Brendan Kelly, July/August, p.10

Sustainable Forestry at Indian Chimney Farm, Chris Grant, July/August, p.18

The Forest Nobody Knows, Rebecca G. Nisley, September/October, p. 11

Path Leads Way to Pollution Protection of Water Supply, JoAnne Castagna, Ed.D., September/October, p. 13

Woodlot Management

HOW TO: Determine if Pines Need Thinning, January/February, p. 5

Another Use for Cull Trees, James A. Hart, January/February, p. 10

In Praise of Aspen, James P. Engel, January/February, p. 14

HOW TO: Buy An Ax, March/April, p. 5

HOW TO: Stake Newly Planted Trees, May/June, p. 5

Ask A Professional: Consulting Foresters and Marking Property Boundaries, Compiled by Peter Smallidge, May/June, p. 8

HOW TO: Understand the Timberland Appraisal Process, July/August, p. 5

ATV Log Cart, Richard R. Starr, July/August, p.6

Ask A Professional: Self Harvest Marketable Trees, Compiled by Peter Smallidge, July/August, p.8
HOW TO: Maintain Forest Boundary Lines, September/October, p. 5
Ask A Professional: Price of White Ash, Compiled by Peter Smallidge, September/October, p. 6
Forest Owner Response to Spring and Summer Storms, Peter Smallidge & Douglas Allen, September/October, p. 8
HOW TO: Design a Woodland Trail, November/December, p. 5
Abandoned Town Roads, Ken Ayers, November/December, p. 12

The New York Forest Owner – 2003 Volume 41, Numbers 1-6

Entomology

Adaptive Forest Management & Forest Pest Management, Douglas C. Allen, January/February, p. 16
The Red Turpentine Beetle, Douglas C. Allen, March/April, p. 16
The Carpenterworm: A Wood Boring Caterpillar, Douglas C. Allen, May/June, p. 16
The Pitted Ambrosia Beetle, Douglas C. Allen, July/August, p. 16
Forest Insect Pest Alerts, Douglas C. Allen, September/October, p. 16
Keep Your Eyes Peeled for Emerald Ash Borer, Douglas C. Allen, November/December, p. 14

Forest Policy and Law

The Knots of Timber Tax, Lloyd R. Casey, May/June, p. 5
Three Timber Theft Bills Introduced in NYS Legislature, Robert Malmshemer, May/June, p. 6
Forest, Farm Land Protected by Conservation Easement, Andrew Zepp, May/June, p. 8
The Knots of Timber Tax, Lloyd R. Casey, July/August, p. 5
NYS Legislature Enacts Timber Theft Bill, Robert Malmshemer, July/August, p. 6
The Knots of Timber Tax, Lloyd R. Casey, September/October, p. 5

Miscellaneous

The State's Toughest Tree Test, Dan Anderson, May/June, p. 4
Answers to the State's Toughest Tree Test, Dan Anderson, July/August, p. 4

NYFOA News

NYFOA Is Moving Ahead, Ron Pedersen, January/February, p. 5
Plan of Merger – NYWS & NYFOA, January/February, p. 6
NYFOA General Director Candidates – Ballot Included, January/February, p. 12
NYFOA Annual Spring Program, January/February, p. 13
Building Bridges, Ron Pedersen, March/April, p. 4
NYFOA Awards, May/June, p. 10
Western Finger Lakes Spring '03 Woodswalk, Chuck Winship & Gary Goff, September/October, p. 18
NYFOA SAC Recognizes NYS Tree Farmers, November/December, p. 9

NY Forestry

Help is a Phone Call Away, March/April, p. 18
NYFOA Toasts DEC Foresters at Retirement Brunch, Gretchen McHugh, May/June, p. 14
Forestry Awareness Day in Albany, May/June, p. 18

StewardshipStewardship

One Man's Battle With Invasives, James Engel, March/April, p. 8
25 Years Certified Tree Farms, March/April, p. 11
Need for Communication, Michael Greason, March/April, 12
Why Are They Putting Goats in the Woods?, Charlie Mowatt, July/August, p. 8
Managing a Private Forest: Profile of a Landowner/Logger Partnership, Douglas R. Allen, July/August, p. 10
2003 Spring Planting, Wanda and Edward Piestrak, July/August, p. 18
A Better Logger, Michael J. Burns & Brandon Kelly, November/December, p. 12

Woodlot Management & AssistanceWoodlot

Management & Assistance

HOW TO: Manage Storm Damage, January/February, 7
Maple Syrup Production For The Beginner, Anni Davenport and Lewis Staats, January/February, p. 8
ATV Logging, Brendan Kelly, January/February, p. 14
Signs and Access, Dan Palm, January/February, p. 18
Money Does Grow on Trees, Renee J. Bouplon, January/February, p. 20
Controlling Access to your Property Through Posting, Jim Ochterski & Daniel Palm, March/April, p. 5
HOW TO: Buy the Right Chainsaw, March/April, p. 6
Forest Crops: The Other Money from your Forest, Robert Beyfuss, March/April, p. 18
FFA Forestry Workshop, March/April, p. 20
HOW TO: Care for Seedlings, May/June, p. 13
The Swallow-worts, Fran Lawlor, July/August, p. 14
HOW TO: Treat Reactions to Poison Ivy, July/August, p. 17
Working With Foresters, Peter J. Smallidge, September/October, p. 6
A Landowner's Guide to: New York's Forest Land Enhancement Program, September/October, p. 8
HOW TO: Know When to Fertilize Your Forest, September/October, p. 14
HOW TO: Design a Windbreak, November/December, p. 5
Forestry Practices to Avoid: Just Say No to Highgrading, Peter J. Smallidge, November/December, p. 6
Arranging a Timber Sale, Brian Bullard, November/December, p. 10
How to Make and Enjoy Your Own Bluebird Trail, Rich Wells, November/December, p. 16