

Forestry Best Management Practices Workshop
Tuesday, April 17th 2018; 6PM to 8PM
Muller Field Station - FLCC
6455 Co Rd 36, Honeoye, NY 14471

6:00-6:30 PM “Forest Invasive Plants & An Overview of New York’s Master Forest Owners (MFO) Program”

*Emily Staychock — Cornell Cooperative Extension: Watershed/
Environmental Educator and MFO Director for the NW NY Region*

6:30-7:15 PM “New York’s Forest History, Facts, Planning, Thinning and Threats”

Brice June — NYS Department of Environmental Conservation Service Forester for Ontario, Livingston and Seneca Counties

7:15-8:00 PM “Working with Your Consultant: Forest Best Management Practices—Design & Maintenance”

Corey Figueiredo— Future Forest Consulting: Owner and Forester

This event is free and open to the public.

If you have any questions please contact the Ontario County Soil and Water Conservation District either by phone at 585-396-1450 or by email at katie.cappiello@ontswcd.com.

